Let me share with you one of my very favorite Mother Teresa quotes... perhaps this will bring a smile to your face today.

"I know God will not give me anything I can't handle. I just wish that He didn't trust me so much."

Every felt like that? I know there are days when I feel so overwhelmed and inadequate for the task of the day, but I am reminded that His grace is sufficient and his mercies are new every morning. No matter where you are in life today, no matter what battle you are facing... take heart you are not alone!

The past few weeks for me have been so busy. Often I feel that it is up to me to "Save Haiti." Many of my nights are restless and my thoughts are often on my friends in such dire need in Haiti. It is your prayers, thoughts, kind words, gifts and encouragement that keep me in the fight ... Thank You!

BACK TO HAITI

I am traveling back to Haiti on Friday March 12. I am so thrilled to be able to take with me several suitcases full of supplies and much needed tents and other materials for shelter.

From The Voice Of America:

"Heavy rains have soaked Haiti, raising fears about flooding and the spread of disease among the estimated one million people left homeless by last month's earthquake.

Reports early Thursday from the capital, Port-au-Prince, say the homeless were drenched by the overnight rains, as few had more than bed sheets strung over poles for shelter.

The United Nations and other aid agencies say the rains are an indication of what can be expected from the rainy season that begins in just weeks.

They say shelter and sanitation are the two greatest concerns. Aid workers are rushing to try to set up more permanent shelters."

FUND RAISING EFFORTS

I am so grateful for the generosity of so many individuals, churches, schools and businesses that have made donations for our Haiti Relief Effort. This past week we had two events.

On Wednesday night March 3rd, David Glenn played a benefit concert for Haiti at Canopy Roads Church here in Tallahassee. David is an amazing talent, and I would highly recommend that you book him at your own venue in the near future.

This past Saturday, March 6 2010, was our first annual Hope-to-Haiti Benefit Softball Tournament.

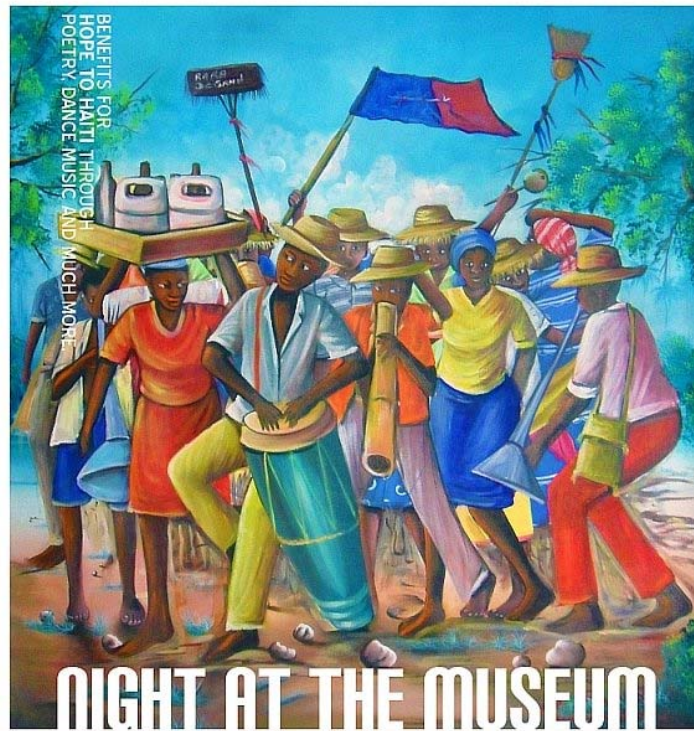

This tournament was hosted, organized and administered by Janet Friesen. Janet is employed with Browning Moving and Storage. Browning has been so GREAT to us in our Earthquake Relief Effort. Browning has picked up all of our donations from various drop off points in Tallahassee and transported them at NO COST to our people in Ft Lauderdale to be airlifted into Haiti. Janet and Browning Moving have been a huge blessing to our ministry. Thank you guys!!

Again, I want to thank all of you for your support... please do not stop now. There is so much work to be done. While in Haiti next week I will deliver supplies to our relief team in Port au Prince. I will also travel to St Marc and Gonaives to deliver food to our schools. Please keep me and my family in your prayers.

In the words of John F. Kennedy, "One person can make a difference and every person should try."

Imagine what the world would look like if we all "tried" together!!!

Grateful for you,

Scott
